Vehicle Panel Repair

Vehicle Protection Products & Accessories

Automotive Electrical & Cable Accessories

Automotive Component Remanufacturing

- Highly fragmented industry in Australia
- AMA ideally placed for significant consolidation taking place in panel repairs
- Highly acquisitive – Gemini (Australia’s largest accident repair group), RMA, Shipstone, BMB & Browns and management agreement with Woods Accident Repair Centres
- Strong relationship with major insurers (inc. Suncorp and IAG) and prestige car manufactures
- National footprint with 70 sites across Australia
- Integration progressing well with cost saving / synergies ahead of expectations
- Momentum building and several more acquisitions are currently being considered

- Leading manufacturer of alloy bullbars
- Prominent in the market with approx 50%+ market share across aftermarket, fleet and OEM sales channel in alloy
- Insurer relationships creating supply opportunities for bullbars
- Further potential acquisitions in this segment

- Product innovation creating organic opportunities
- Pursuing broader product segments including industrial, marine, leisure and automotive retail sectors
- Opportunity to expand through vertical integration in supply chain for Panel.

- Solid organic growth profile with Fluidrive
- Strong relationship with major manufactures
- Integrated relationship with 4 out of the top 6 market share OEM brands
- Opportunity to expand in core market areas
- Strong management and team buy-in are delivering exceptionally strong operational results

Strong revenue and earnings growth supported by accretive acquisitions

- Strong financial performance in 2015 driven by vehicle protection and panel segments
- Revenue up to $95.8m (up ~49% on 2014), driven by panel acquisitions of RMA, Shipstone, BMB & Browns Motors, in addition to a full 12month contribution from Custom Alloy, which was acquired November 2013
- Underlying EBITDA up to $14.4m (up ~55% on 2014), with margins increasing to 15.0% as the benefits of recent acquisitions and efficiency gains underpinned margin expansion
- Strong operating cash flows of $7.8 million (up ~30% on 2014)
- All segments performing well and recently acquired businesses contributing strongly with synergies as expected
- Significantly higher revenue and earnings contribution from panel repair expected with recent acquisitions and more in the pipeline
- Low gearing with significant balance sheet capacity

Strong national footprint and customer relationships

- National coverage with little overlap between the two groups
- Broaden relationships with insurance companies

Highly complementary skills and capabilities with significant cost-savings and synergies are expected in the medium term.

- Gemini's sophisticated centralised control systems together with AMA's operations management platform and the combined group procurement capabilities expected to generate significant benefits
- Further strengthens AMA's position to participate in the industry consolidation

Further management expertise and innovation within the sector

- Andrew Hopkins, Executive Chairman of the Gemini Group, brings further management expertise to AMA
- The success of his group is illustrative of his experience in the sector and his ability to continually innovate
- Andrew and his team have become the major independent consolidator in the country
- Gemini's depth of management adds significantly to AMA
