Chairman's Letter

10 November 2017

Dear Fellow ASGL Shareholder,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of AMA Group Limited (AMA), I am pleased to introduce an off-market offer (Offer) by AMA to acquire all of your Shares in Automotive Solutions Group Limited (ASGL) for $0.35 per ASGL Share (Offer Price), for cash consideration.

The Offer also extends to all ASGL Shares which come into existence upon the conversion of or exercise of rights attached to other ASGL securities from the Register Date to the end of the Offer Period.

This Offer is conditional upon certain conditions being satisfied including, amongst others, AMA achieving a relevant interest in not less than 50.1% of the total voting Shares in ASGL at or before the end of the Offer Period.

AMA is the major shareholder of ASGL, currently holding a relevant interest in 31.29% of the total voting Shares in ASGL.

Reasons to accept the Offer

The Offer Price represents a 48.9% premium to the closing price of ASGL Shares on 31 October 2017 of $0.235 per Share (being the last day on which ASGL Shares traded on the ASX before the announcement date of 1 November 2017 (Announcement Dated)).

The Offer Price represents a premium of 31.4% to the Volume Weighted Average Price of ASGL Shares on the ASX of $0.266 per Share, for the period from 10 July 2017 (the first trading day after AMA's previous takeover offer closed) to 31 October 2017.

The Offer capitalises ASGL at $17.621m. This is 2.85 times ASGL's net tangible assets ($6.176 million) as at 30 June 2017.

The Offer Price equals the highest price paid by AMA for ASGL Shares in the period of 4 months prior to the Announcement Date. No other ASGL Shares have been acquired by AMA in the period since the Announcement Date.

As shareholders you have been promised a return of shareholder value, however there is no definition of what that actually represents and by when. The reality is that poor financial performance has resulted in a depletion of ASGL's cash resources, and a dysfunctional board of directors has used ASGL's resources to fight each other. You have to ask yourself what does a return of shareholder value mean and by when?

Following closing of AMA's previous takeover offer on 7 July 2017, there have also been a number of significant events:

- (a) the supposedly temporary price weakness has now proven itself to be sustained given that in the period between 12 July 2017 and 31 October 2017, every on-market trade of ASGL Shares has been at a price below $0.35 per Share.
- (b) the volume weighted average price of ASGL Shares traded on the ASX (VWAP) for the following periods up to 31 October 2017 is as follows:
 - (i) for the last 30 days: $0.22 per Share
 - (ii) for the last 60 days $0.243 per Share
 - (iii) for the last 90 days: $0.253 per Share
- (c) On this basis, the present offer of $0.35 per Share is a significant premium to those prices as follows:
 - (i) 30 day VWAP : +58.7%;
 - (ii) 60 day VWAP : +44.3%;
 - (iii) 90 day VWAP : +38.5%,.

- (d) the 30 June 2017 annual report for ASGL reveals:
- (i) a loss before interest and tax (EBIT) of $19,337,948, which included an impairment of goodwill of $13,867,680, relating to six businesses acquired 6.5 months prior, on 16 December 2016;
 - (ii) that the reported EBIT loss of $19,337,948 differed to the result reported in the 30 June 2017 Appendix 4E preliminary final report (provided to the ASX on 31 August 2017) by $7,156,834. This raises serious questions about the market guidance range of $0.8 million to $0.9 million, provided to the market on 26 April 2017;
 - (iii) that the cash and cash equivalent balance was $1,863,220. This has reduced from the balance reported at 31 December 2016 of $3,971,283;
 - (iv) an audit qualification as over 25% of the inventory value was unable to be verified.
- (e) ASGL is not giving any announcements to the market to indicate that its turnaround plan is having effect or that or as to its progress regarding its guidance for the second half of 2017;
- (f) ASGL has had a change of CEO, Chairman (twice), CFO and has engaged multiple apparent turn around specialists and contractors. Three new directors joined the board (Mr Carr on 27 October 2017 and Mr Ranawake and Mr Chapman on 2 November 2017). On 2 November 2017 Peter Alexander, Mark Larkham and Bruce Wedemeyer all resigned as directors after two extraordinary general meetings to remove and appoint directors were called by fighting factions and then cancelled. Mr Wedemeyer also dropped legal proceedings against ASGL which were announced to the market as having been commenced 1 day earlier. As a shareholder, AMA is concerned at this series of extraordinary events, with no guarantee similar events will not occur in the future. Further, ASGL is now in the hands of an entirely new board with no prior experience or involvement in ASGL; and
- (g) The last Appendix 4C (Quarterly Cash Flow Report) lodged on 1 November 2017 reveals operating cash outflows in the quarter of $8.400 million and operating cash inflows for the quarter of $7.821 million resulting in net operating cash outflows of $0.579 million. After net investing cash outflows of $0.088 million, the cash and cash equivalents at the end of the quarter reduced by $0.667 million to be $1.196 million. In other words, ASGL continues to spend considerably more than it generates.

Added to the persistently low Share price is a lack of liquidity for shareholders with a total of 2,419,122 Shares having been traded since AMA's last takeover closed and 31 October 2017, which represents only 4.8% of the total Share capital of ASGL.

However, the current Offer allows you to sell all of your ASGL Shares to AMA (subject to the conditions herein). There is currently no competing offer to acquire your ASGL Shares and the ASGL Share price may fall after the Offer.

You should consider the value and certainty of AMA's all-cash Offer compared with the risks and uncertainties of remaining a shareholder in ASGL.

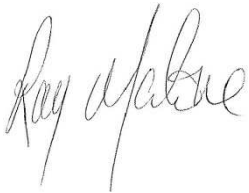

How to accept the Offer

Detailed information in respect of the Offer is set out in this Bidder's Statement. I encourage you to read the entirety of this Bidder's Statement carefully and in full, and then accept the Offer as soon as possible.

Details on how to accept the Offer are set out in Section 1.2 of the Bidder's Statement. You must accept the Offer by 7.00pm (AEDT) on 18 December 2017 unless that date is otherwise extended or the Offer is withdrawn.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr Andy Sibley on 07 3897 5780 (from within Australia) or +61 7 3897 5780 (from outside Australia), or consult your financial, legal, taxation or other professional adviser.

Yours sincerely

1.2. How to accept the Offer

You may only accept the Offer for all of your ASGL Shares.

To accept, you must accept the Offer by no later than the Offer Closing Date.

How to accept the Offer will depend on whether you hold your ASGL Shares in an Issuer Sponsored Holding or a CHESS Holding.

Issuer Sponsored Holdings (i.e. you have a Security Holder Reference Number starting with the letter I – see the attached Acceptance Form).

If your holding is an Issued Sponsored Holding, you may accept the Offer by:

- (a) completing and signing the Acceptance Form attached to this Bidder's Statement; and
- (b) returning the Acceptance Form to AMA with all documents specified in the Acceptance Form. The Acceptance Form must be received by AMA in time to allow AMA to give instructions to the Controlling Participant prior to the Offer Closing Date.

Acceptance Forms must be received with original signatures. Copies or electronic forms will not be accepted.

CHESS Holdings (i.e. you have a Security Holder Reference Number starting with the letter X – see attached Acceptance Form)

If your ASGL Shares are held in a CHESS Holding, you can accept the Offer by either:

- (b) Completing and signing the Acceptance Form attached to this Bidder's Statement and returning it to the address set out in the Acceptance Form. The Acceptance Form authorises your Controlling Participant (usually your Broker) to initiate your acceptance to the Offer on your behalf. Your Acceptance Form must be received by AMA in time to allow AMA to give instructions to the Controlling Participant prior to the Offer Closing Date.

Acceptance Forms must be received with original signatures. Copies or electronic forms will not be accepted.

Controlling Participants

If you are a Broker or an ASX Settlement Participant / Controlling Participant in respect of your AGL Shares, you must yourself initiate the acceptance of this Offer in accordance with rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules prior to the Offer Closing Date.

The Bidder recommends that you give instructions at the earlier opportunity to avoid missing the Offer Closing Date.

1.3. Terms

The full terms of the Offer are in Section 12 of this Bidder's Statement.

The Offer will remain open until the Offer Closing Date unless withdrawn or extended.

1.4. Conditions

The Offer and any contract that results from an acceptance of this Offer are subject to the following Defeating Conditions:

- (a) that at or before the end of the Offer Period AMA has a relevant interest in not less than 50.1% of the voting Shares in ASGL (including any ASGL Shares that may be issued at any time up to the Offer Closing Date); and
- (b) the other conditions in Section 6 of this Bidder's Statement.

2. Why you should accept this Offer

Attractiveness of Offer Price

This Offer Price of $0.35 (Offer Price) is for each ASGL Share which represents a premium of 48.9% to the closing share price on the day before the announcement date (31 October 2017) of $0.235, and a premium of 58.7% to the VWAP of $0.22 per Share over the 30 day period up to 31 October 2017.

During the three months ended 31 October 2017:

- (a) the highest recorded sale price for ASGL Shares on the ASX was $0.30 per Share on 1 August 2017; and

- (b) the lowest record sale price for ASGL Shares on the ASX was $0.20 per Share on 11 October 2017.

A graph showing the recent Share price performance of ASGL Shares is in Section 7.9 of this Bidder's Statement.

The Offer Price equals the highest price paid by AMA for ASGL Shares in the period of 4 months prior to the date of this Offer.

Further, the last Appendix 4C (Quarterly Cash Flow Report) lodged by ASGL on 1 November 2017 reveals operating cash outflows in the quarter of $8.400 million and operating cash inflows for the quarter of $7.821 million resulting in net operating cash outflows of $0.579 million. After net investing cash outflows of $0.088 million, the cash and cash equivalents at the end of the quarter reduced by $0.667 million to be $1.196 million.

2.1 Certainty of Offer Price

The Offer Price is fixed during the Offer Period and provides certainty as opposed to future uncertain trading prices. The graph in Section 7.9 of this Bidder's Statement demonstrates the decrease in ASGL Share price since 23 May 2017 (noting that the period from 23 May 2017 to 7 July 2017 was the period during which AMA's previous takeover offer at $0.35 per Share was able to be accepted).

2.2 Risks of not accepting the Offer

(a) Risks of being a minor shareholder

If you do not accept the Offer:

- (i) you may be left with a small shareholding in ASGL;
- (ii) the Shareholder spread after the Offer is completed may be less than required under the ASX Listing Rules; and

(iii) the ASX may choose to suspend or de-list ASGL in which case, the liquidity in ASGL Shares may be severely impacted.

(b) Compulsory acquisition

Where the Corporations Act permits, the Bidder intends to exercise its rights to compulsorily acquire the remaining ASGL Shares at the Offer Price and you may be paid later than accepting Shareholders.

(c) Future uncertainty

Depending on the level of acceptances the Bidder receives under the Offer, the market for ASGL Shares may become even less liquid than at present. This could make it more difficult for you to sell your ASGL Shares at an attractive price in the future.

2.3 The Offer is the only takeover offer presently available for your Shares

The Offer is the only takeover offer presently available for all ASGL Shares as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. The Offer represents a liquidity opportunity for Shareholders to sell all their ASGL Shares for the Offer Price. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the Bidder is not aware of any other party intending to make a takeover offer for ASGL Shares.

2.4 Brokerage by accepting the Offer

By accepting the Offer, you will not pay the Bidder's brokerage costs. You may incur brokerage to your broker if you choose to accept the Offer. You should confirm the fees with your broker.

8. The Bidder's intentions

8.1 Introduction

This Section sets out the rationale for the Offer and the Bidder's intentions in relation to:

- (a) the continuation of the business of ASGL;
- (b) any redeployment of fixed assets which are significant to the business of ASGL; and
- (c) the future employment of the present employees of ASGL.

These intentions are based on the information available to the Bidder at the time of preparation of this Bidder's Statement.

8.2 Strategic Review

The Bidder and its advisers have reviewed information that has been publicly released by ASGL, its current activities and its plans for the future. However, the Bidder does not currently have access to all material information, facts and circumstances which it considers necessary to assess the operational, commercial, taxation and financial implications of its current intentions in order to make final decisions on these key matters.

While the Bidder's general intentions are set out in Section 8 of this Bidder's Statement, where the Bidder controls more than 50% of the voting power in ASGL's Shares, it proposes to conduct a review of the strategy, operations, activities, assets and employees of ASGL in light of the information which then becomes available to it (Strategic Review).

The Strategic Review will focus on and have as its objectives:

- (a) integrating management operating systems and platforms, administrative procedures, systems and reporting lines;
- (b) reviewing management, employees and operations;
- (c) identifying potential synergies and cost savings, including rent, professional advisory fees and other synergistic operational cost; and
- (d) identifying any revenue enhancement opportunities that may become available through interaction with other parts of the AMA Group of entities.

Final decision will only be reached in light of all material facts and circumstances. Accordingly, the statements set out in this Section are statements of current intention only which may change as new information becomes available or circumstances change.

8.3 Intentions generally

The purpose of the Strategic Review will be to undertake a review of current operations, systems and processes to ascertain opportunities for cost rationalisation and determine synergies which benefit both the Bidder and ASGL. In the short term (except for the changes and intentions set out in this Section 8 and subject to the outcome of the Strategic Review), the Bidder intends, based on the information presently known to it:

- (a) to continue the ASGL current businesses;
- (b) not to make any major material changes to the current businesses of ASGL;
- (c) not to materially redeploy any of the fixed assets of the businesses of ASGL; and
- (d) not to make any immediate material changes to the employment of ASGL's employees.

The Bidder has already formed a preliminary view that certain cost savings may be achieved by eliminating the duplication of specific tasks which may benefit both entities.

8.4 Intention upon controlling 90% or more of ASGL Shares

Should the Bidder obtain control of 90% or more of ASGL's Shares, ASGL will become a controlled entity of the Bidder and become entitled to acquire the balance of the ASGL Shares under the Corporations Act, the Bidder will:

- (a) proceed with the compulsory acquisition of the balance of the ASGL Shares;
- (b) seek to remove ASGL from the Official List of the ASX;
- (c) seek to replace all non-executive directors with nominees of the Bidder;
- (d) undertake the Strategic Review; and
- (e) meet with key partners (for example, where consent is required under a material contracts (see Section 11.6 of this Bidder's Statement)).

It is not the Bidder's current intention to substantially change the operating activities of ASGL. Rather, the Bidder would seek to assist ASGL management with their operating activities seeking to grow and expand the size and profitability of its business. As outlined above, the Bidder will however, undertake the Strategic Review of ASGL. The results of which may change these current intentions.

The Bidder considers ASGL's employees to be an integral part of the ASGL's operations. The Bidder will, however, seek to integrate certain functions of ASGL with those of the Bidder to take advantage of cost savings from eliminating duplicated functions. In these circumstances, some positions may become redundant. Where possible, the Bidder will seek to redeploy employees. However, where this is not possible, affected employees will be made redundant in compliance with any applicable legislative or contractual requirements and be paid their full legal entitlements.

8.5 Intentions upon controlling more than 50% but less than 90% of ASGL's Shares

Should the Bidder obtain control of more than 50%, but less than 90% of the ASGL Shares, ASGL will still become a controlled entity of the Bidder. The Bidder's current intentions are to:

- (a) not substantially change the operating activities of ASGL. Rather AMA would assist ASGL management in their operating activities seeking to grow and expand the size and profitability of these businesses. Due to the Board's uncertainty as to the date of this Bidder's Statement, AMA will consider Board appointments at the relevant time with the view of seeking stability
- (b) undertake the Strategic Review, assessing the operations and potentially altering some elements of these activities depending on the findings of this Review;
- (c) maintain ASGL's listing on the ASX, subject to the requirements for listing (including a sufficient spread of investors) continuing to be satisfied. The ASX may, however, decide itself to remove ASGL from the Official List depending upon factors such as the spread of ASGL shareholders at that time, the level of liquidity in ASGL Shares and the listing requirements of the ASX; and
- (d) meet with key partners (for example, where consent is required under a material contracts (see Section 11.6 of this Bidder's Statement)).

The Bidder may, at some time in the future, acquire additional ASGL Shares in a manner consistent with the Corporations Act. The Bidder has not yet decided whether it will acquire further ASGL Shares as this will depend upon the extent to which the Bidder has the capacity to acquire further ASGL Shares and market conditions at that time.

If the Bidder becomes entitled, at some time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights.

8.6 Intentions upon controlling 50% or less of ASGL Shares

It is a condition (minimum acceptance condition) of the Offer that AMA obtain at least 50.1% of the voting Shares in ASGL. Therefore, if AMA achieve less than 50.1% of the ASGL Shares, the Offer will be withdrawn unless AMA waives this condition.

If the Bidder does not obtain control of more than 50% of the voting Shares in ASGL and has waived the minimum acceptance condition, it will consider acquiring additional ASGL Shares under Item 9 in section 611 of the Corporations Act which permits a Bidder and its Associates to acquire up to 3% of ASGL Shares every 6 months (known as the 'creep' exception). The Bidder has not yet decided whether it will acquire further ASGL Shares as this will depend upon the extent to which the Bidder has the capacity to acquire further ASGL Shares and market conditions at that time.

8.7 Limitations on intentions

The intentions and statements of future conduct set out in this Section 8 must be read as being subject to:

- (a) the outcome of the Strategic Review;
- (b) the law (including the Corporations Act) and the Listing Rules, including in particular the requirement of the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules in relation to conflicts of interest and "related party" transactions given that, if the Bidder gains control of ASGL but does not acquire all of the ASGL Shares, it will be treated as a related party of ASGL for these purposes; and
- (c) the legal obligation of the ASGL directors at the time, including any nominees of the Bidder, to act in good faith and in the best interests of ASGL and for the proper purposes and to have regard to the interest of all ASGL Shareholders (in which regard the role of independent directors of ASGL will also be important).

9. Sources of cash consideration

9.1 Maximum amount payable

The consideration for the acquisition of the ASGL Shares under this Offer will be satisfied by the payment of cash (in Australian dollars).

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, there are 50,345,622 Shares on issue; 15,755,471 of which are already held by the Bidder.

Accordingly, the total maximum amount of cash which may be required by the Bidder to settle acceptances under the Offer is $12,106,553 (Total Offer Consideration).

9.2 Source of funding

The Bidder already has in place undrawn debt funding arrangements in excess of the Total Offer Consideration.

On 24 August 2016, AMA entered into a new Facility Agreement with National Australia Bank Limited. The key terms of this agreement are:

- a $40 million debt facility, with a tenure of 36 months, to assist in funding acquisitions and general corporate needs;
- a $6.5 million lease facility to assist with the purchase of capital equipment;
- a $3.0 million bank guarantee facility to assist with securing property rental leases; and
- a $0.4 million letter of credit facility.

The Facility is secured by a fixed and floating charge over all of the assets of AMA and its wholly owned subsidiaries and is subject to standard covenants. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, AMA has drawn $16 million of the $40 million debt facility and is in compliance with covenants governing this facility.

The Offer will not be sourced from the Bidder's own cash resources.

The Offer is not subject to any financing conditions.

9.3 Provisions of consideration

Having regard to the matters set out in this Section 9, the Bidder is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming the view, and it holds the view, that it will be able to satisfy its payment obligations under the Offer.

10. Taxation considerations

10.1 Australian tax implications for ASGL Shareholders

The following is a general description of the Australian income tax, Capital Gains Tax (CGT) and Goods and Services Tax (GST) consequences for ASGL Shareholders on disposing of their ASGL Shares, in return for cash.

The general information contained herein is based upon taxation law and practice in effect at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or comprehensive analysis of the taxation laws of Australia, nor should it be construed as taxation advice. The summary does not consider any specific facts or circumstances that may apply to particular shareholders. Further, it does not deal with the taxation consequences of disposing of Shares issued under an employee Share scheme, which may be subject to specific tax provisions.

We recommend you seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of disposing of your ASGL Shares according to your own particular circumstances.

The Australian tax consequences of disposing of your ASGL Shares will depend on a number of factors including:

- whether you are an Australian resident or non-resident for tax purposes;
- whether you hold your ASGL Shares on capital or revenue account or as trading stock;

- when you acquired your ASGL Shares for tax purposes; and
- whether you are an individual, a company or a trustee of a complying superannuation entity.

10.2 Shareholders who are Australian residents for tax purposes

Disposal of Shares held as trading stock

If you hold your ASGL Shares as trading stock (e.g. you are carrying on a business as a Share trader) you will be required to include the amount of the cash consideration for the disposal of your ASGL Shares in your assessable income. Under the trading stock rules, a deduction would be expected to be claimable for the tax cost base of those Shares.

Disposal of Shares held on revenue account

If you hold your ASGL Shares on revenue account (e.g. you acquired your ASGL Shares for the main purpose of reselling them at a profit, but are not carrying on a business as a Share trader) then you will be required to treat any gain or loss arising on the disposal of your ASGL Shares as either assessable income or, subject to meeting certain integrity provisions, an allowable deduction.

The calculation of the gain or loss will broadly be the difference between the:

- the cash consideration received; and
- the cost of acquiring your ASGL Shares.

Disposal of Shares held on capital account

If you hold your ASGL Shares on capital account, the disposal of ASGL Shares will generally have an Australian CGT consequence. The disposal of your ASGL Shares whether under the acceptance of the Offer or the compulsory acquisition of your ASGL Shares will constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes.

The CGT event will occur at the time that you accept the Offer, or at the time that your ASGL Shares are compulsorily acquired.

The CGT implications of a disposal of your ASGL Shares will depend upon a number of factors, including:

- the date your ASGL Shares were acquired for CGT purposes;
- your taxpayer status (e.g. individual, trust, self managed superannuation fund or company); and
- the length of time you have held your ASGL Shares.

Shares acquired before 11.45am on 21 September 1999

A capital gain or loss will arise depending on the difference between:

- the cash proceeds received; and
- the cost base of the ASGL Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the Shares plus any incidental costs of acquisition, e.g. brokerage fees).

If your ASGL Shares were acquired before 11.45am by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT time) on 21 September 1999 then for the purpose of calculating a capital gain (but not a capital loss), you may choose that the cost base of those Shares be indexed (the “indexation method”).

Alternatively, provided you have held your ASGL Shares for at least 12 months, and you do not choose to apply the indexation method, the discount capital gain provisions may apply (the “discount method”). This means that:

- if you are an individual or trust, half of the capital gain (after offsetting any applicable capital losses) would be included in your assessable income; or

- if you are a complying superannuation fund, two-thirds of the capital gain after offsetting any applicable capital losses would be included in your assessable income¹.

The CGT provisions may also apply to beneficiaries that receive a trust distribution from a trust that makes a capital gain on the disposal of the ASGL Shares. You should seek advice from your professional tax adviser in this regard.

The discount method will not apply to a company making a capital gain. Accordingly, Shareholders that are companies will not be able to apply the CGT discount to reduce a capital gain that arises on the disposal of their ASGL Shares.

If you make a capital loss on the disposal of your ASGL Shares, the capital loss may only be used to reduce other capital gains that arise in the same or subsequent income years.

Shareholders applying the discount method must apply any current or prior year capital losses to reduce the gross capital gain before applying the relevant discount. Alternatively, if you choose the indexation method, capital losses are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base.

Shares acquired after 11.45 am on 21 September 1999

If you acquired your ASGL Shares after 11.45 am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999 then you will not be entitled to choose the indexation method when calculating a capital gain or loss on the disposal of your ASGL Shares.

If you are an individual, trust or complying superannuation fund, and have held your ASGL Shares for at least 12 months at the time the Offer is accepted (or at the time the ASGL Shares are compulsorily acquired where no acceptance is given) then the discount method will automatically apply in calculating any capital gain on disposal.

¹ If the asset that gives rise to the capital gain was held to provide for a super income stream benefits to members (of the complying superannuation fund) the capital gain may be exempt from tax.

Any available capital loss must be applied to reduce the realised gross capital gain before applying the relevant CGT discount.

If your ASGL Shares have been held for less than 12 months, or you are a company, the discount method is not available to you. In these circumstances, the gross capital gain on the Shares, being any excess of the value of the capital proceeds over the cost base of the Shares, will be assessable in full.

10.3 Shareholders who are not Australian residents for tax purposes

Disposal of Shares held as trading stock or on revenue account

If you are not an Australian tax resident and your ASGL Shares are held as trading stock or otherwise on revenue account you should seek your own professional advice.

Disposal of Shares held on capital account

Generally speaking if you are not an Australian tax resident and you hold your ASGL Shares on capital account, you are not expected to be subject to Australian CGT on the disposal of your ASGL Shares. However, you should seek your own professional advice.

10.4 Taxation of Financial Arrangements (TOFA)

The TOFA provisions apply to assess gains and losses arising from certain “financial arrangements” on revenue account. In particular, the TOFA provisions will determine the timing of the assessability / deductibility of affected gains or losses.

Generally speaking the TOFA provisions should not apply to a gain or loss arising on the disposal of an ASGL Share unless either a “fair value method” election or a “reliance on financial reports” election has been made by the shareholder. The TOFA rules will only have application to certain taxpayers.

Given the complexity of the TOFA provisions ASGL Shareholders should obtain their own advice in relation to the applicability of the TOFA provisions in light of their own individual facts and circumstances.

10.5 Goods and Services Tax (GST)

GST should not be payable on the disposal of your ASGL Shares under the arrangement.

11. Other material information

11.1 Relevant Interest and voting power of the Bidder's directors

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, none of the directors of the Bidder have a relevant interest in any ASGL Shares.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement and immediately before the Offer was first sent, each Director of the Bidder had 0% voting power in ASGL.

11.2 No agreements with ASGL Directors

There is no agreement between the Bidder or its associates and ASGL Director or another officer of ASGL in connection with or conditional on the outcome of the Offer other than as disclosed in this Bidder's Statement.

11.3 No escalation agreements

Neither the Bidder nor any of their associates has entered into any escalation agreement that is prohibited by section 622 of the Corporations Act.

11.4 No collateral benefits

During the period beginning 4 months before each of the date of this Bidder's Statement and the Offer Date, neither the Bidder nor any associate of the Bidder, gave, or offered to give or agreed to give a benefit to another person that is not available under the Offer and was likely to induce the other person, or an associate of the other person, to accept an Offer.

11.5 Acquisitions of ASGL Shares by AMA in the last 4 months

In the 4 months prior to the date of the announcement of this Offer (1 November 2017) AMA acquired 5,055,036 ASGL Shares all at a price of $0.35 per Share pursuant to AMA's on-market takeover offer for ASGL Shares announced on 23 May 2017. No other ASGL Shares have been acquired by the Bidder since the close of the previous on-market takeover undertaken by the Bidder.

11.6 Material Contracts

The Bidder is aware that the prospectus issued by ASGL dated 7 December 2016 (Prospectus) states "certain agreements with manufacturers or distributors contain change of control provisions. If a change of control occurs (for example, by way of a takeover offer or other acquisition) those provision require the consent of the relevant manufacturer or distributor. If consent is not obtained as required, the manufacturer or distributor may terminate the relevant agreement".

As part of the Strategic Review, the Bidder would seek to obtain the consent of those Manufacturers and Distributors. In the event that this approval is not obtained, the Bidder believes it will not have a material impact on ASGL's businesses as alternative suppliers would be sought.

There may be other agreements (such as leases) which may also have change of control provisions but which ASGL deemed immaterial for the purposes of the Prospectus.

11.7 Register Date

For the purposes of Section 633(2) of the Corporations Act, the date for determining the persons to whom information is to be sent pursuant to items 6 and 12 in the table in Section 633(1) of the Corporations Act is 2 November 2017 (Register Date).

11.8 Regulatory approvals

There are no regulatory approvals that the Bidder must obtain in order to make and complete the Offer.

11.9 ASIC modification and exemptions

The Bidder has not obtained from ASIC any modifications of, or exemptions from, the Corporations Act in relation to the Offer. However, ASIC has published various instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons, including the Bidder, in relation to the operation of Chapters 6 and 6A of the Corporations Act.

The Bidder has relied on the modifications to Section 617(2), Section 620, Section 633 and Section 636(1)(j) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraphs 4(a), 4(d), 5(a) and 5(c) of ASIC Class Order 13/521.

The Bidder has also relied on the modification to Section 636(3) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 5(d) of ASIC Class Order 13/521 to include references to certain statements by ASGL and the ASGL Directors in this Bidder's Statement without obtaining the consent of those persons. The relevant statements were taken from certain ASGL ASX announcements.

As required by ASIC Class Order 13/521, the Bidder will make available a copy of this Bidder's Statement (or relevant extracts from these documents), free of charge, to ASGL Shareholders who request them during the Offer Period. To obtain a copy please contact Mr Andy Sibley of AMA Group Limited on 07 3897 5780 (from within Australia) or +61 7 3897 5780 (from outside Australia).

The Bidder has also relied on the modifications to Section 636(3) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 5 of ASIC Corporations (Consent to Statements) Instrument 2016/72 to include references to trading data of ASGL Shares at the ASX. In accordance with the requirements of paragraph 5, the trading data was prepared by Bell Potter Securities Limited using data feed sourced from Bloomberg and IRESS who have not consented to the inclusion of the trading data in this Bidder's Statement. The table in Section 7.9 of this Bidder's Statement was prepared by AMA based on trading data provided by Bell Potter Securities Limited.
